EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 25.

EASTERN STATES.

New York News.

NEW YORK, October 24.—The grand jury today considered the subject of indicting Mayor Hall for malfeasance in office. The witnesses examined were George Jones of the New York Times, Baxter, furniture dealer, and Masterson & Palmer, of the Tenth National Bank. The bill against the Mayor was dismissed and censure passed on him for negligence in the discharge of the duties of his office.

The Lamar Insurance Company suspended today.

The Mayor of Chicago acknowledges a contribution of $2,500 by the Erie railway employees.

The challenge race between the Dauntless and Livonia to-day, for a purse of fifty guineas, was won by the former by 11 minutes 3 seconds, actual, or 6 minutes 3 seconds, corrected time.

The Tammany County Convention this evening made nominations: For Justice of the Supreme Court, Thomas A. Ledwith. Justice Court, Charles R. Daly. Register, Edward P. Standly. Judges, Jones and Spencer, present incumbents, were nominated Judges of the Supreme Court.

A Railroad Murderer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Wm. Thompson, indicted for manslaughter, in displacing the switch at the time of the recent dreadful accident on the Newark and New York, has withdrawn the plea of not guilty, and thrown himself on the mercy of the court, which in consequence of his youth is likely to be lenient.

A large party of workingmen of various trades leave for Chicago to-morrow.

Miscellaneous News.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 24.—In the colored convention to-day, resolutions were offered favoring the renomination of President Grant. Afterward a substitute was offered declaring it impolitic to anticipate the Republican party, which was adopted.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Oct. 24.—The forests on the mountains are still burning.

Affairs in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—The volunteer regiment, a member of which killed Col. Grosner last week, has been disbanded.

P. F. W. Peck, one of our oldest citizens, died last night, from injuries received by a fall.

The work of rebuilding the burnt district is progressing with wonderful rapidity.

Weather continues favorable.

The saddest evidences of the loss of life by the great conflagration are daily discovered in the ruins both of the north and south divisions.

There is little doubt that many perished in the terrible whirlwind, and their remains have not been found.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Stocks are irregular and lower. Western Union 60, Quicksilver 17½, Wells Fargo & Co. 50½, Pacific Mail 40½.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Miscellaneous News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—A petition was received at the Executive mansion to-day, fifty feet long, signed by women of Utah, protesting against polygamy and urging Executive measures to suppress the practice in the Territory.

The Census Report is completed and in the press.

The Cabinet session to-day was brief. The subject of the recapture of the schooner Horton was not mentioned.

Our Government sustains the course of Minister Bassett in the complaint by the Haytian Government of breach of neutral rights by Spaniards. The Government in this case has, through the Secretary of State, informed the Spanish Minister of its views on the subject. Government sees no necessity for force to enter the matter undergoing adjustment.

Capt. Paul Thurly is detached from Chief of Staff of the Pacific fleet and ordered to return home. Lieut. Commander Charles Huntington is detached from the Jamestown and placed under waiting orders. Paymaster Geo. R. Watkins is detached from the Jamestown and ordered to settle his accounts. Second Assistant Engineer T. W. Tomprow is detached from the Mohican, and placed under waiting orders.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

French Affairs.

PARIS, October 24.—Duke de Aumale has been elected President of the General Council of the Department of Oise.

M. Lockroy, in the Council of the Department of the Seine, made a motion to-day in favor of amnesty for Communists.

Bonapartists intend to agitate the impeachment of the government of the 4th of September, dissolution of the National Assembly and advocate a plebiscitum to decide the future form of Government.

German Affairs.

BERLIN, October 24.—In the session of the Reichstag Von Roon, Minister of War, in answer to the interrogation stated that two-thirds of the infantry reserves would shortly be permitted to return home.

DARMSTADT, October 24.—The Court theater is on fire this afternoon. A heavy easterly wind is blowing, and it is feared that the flames will soon spread to adjacent buildings.

LATER—The fire is rapidly spreading. The theater is entirely destroyed. A stormy wind carries the flames and sparks westward to the upper town. The arsenal is in danger and the troops are evacuating it.

Marine Disasters.

HALIFAX, October 24.—A large bark is reported ashore on New Harbor ledges. No tidings of the crew. Two vessels are ashore at Pope's harbor, two at Marie Joseph and one at Bickerton.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 25.—Wm. Russell, the highwayman, who escaped from Carson at the great break and was recaptured here last night while attempting to ship on board a sailing vessel for a foreign port, will be taken back to Carson to-morrow.

Senator Morton, on being serenaded by the Second Artillery band last night, was introduced by General Miller to the crowd, and made a speech of some length, praising California, and predicting a bright future and reviewing the political situation. He leaves for home, overland, to-day.

Francisco Felix sues the Central Pacific Railroad Company for $100,000 damages for personal injuries.

Another "Departure" Meditated.

A dispatch from Washington, October 16th, gives this:

In conversation to-day Gen. Butler expressed the opinion that in view of the result of the late elections, he thought it doubtful if the Democrats would nominate a candidate for the Presidency. This is probably something more than mere opinion. It happens to exactly coincide with what is known here regarding a very important movement among prominent Democrats in this very direction. This movement has thus far chiefly developed itself in the West, where ex-Senator Hendricks is said to be promoting it, and in the interest of which the Louisville Ledger and the Bourbons of Kentucky have completely changed front within the past few weeks. The coming man pointed to is Hon. David Davis, of the Supreme Court, who is to come to the front under the auspices of the disaffected and so-called conservative Republicans, and to be accepted by the Democrats. The current of this movement is very perceptible, and is attracting much attention among politicians.

According to New York reports Mayor Hall is trying to suppress Harper's Weekly. The problem presented is hardly that of an irresistible force against an immovable object. The indignation excited by the insane attempt against the Times will be renewed with redoubled force at this fresh piece of foolish wrath.

STATISTICAL NOTES.

The population of Ireland in 1871 is 5,402,759, which is no larger than it was in 1801, and less than in 1841 by 2,819,905, and less than in 1861 by 396,208.

Liberia, last year, produced 300,000 pounds of sugar, 85,000 pounds of coffee, 100,000 pounds of ginger, and 20 tons of white arrow-root—the latter being prepared for market.

About 30,000 pounds of sponges are annually sold at Nassau, where it is gathered. The names of the different kinds of sponge are sheep-wool, velvet, glove, yellow, hard head and grass.

"In the year 1870," it is stated, "184,307 men raised from the Prussian mines 658,782,931 hundred weight in ores, valued at $48,015,948 in gold; and 2,313 men mined 7,443,069 hundred weight of salt, valued at $1,371,823 in gold.

The circulating notes issued under the authority of the United States, including greenbacks, greenback certificates, fractional currency, compound-interest notes, and national bank notes, amounted on the 31st of July, 1865, to $1,048,261,304. On the 1st of March, 1869, it was $766,390,718; and on the 1st of July, 1871, it was $747,251,378.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Not a word have we seen in any of the Democratic papers about Hodge, the defaulting Paymaster, since the discovery that he was a Democrat.

The San Francisco Chronicle says that a number of Federal officials in San Francisco supported Lake, the Democratic candidate for municipal Judge, and that paper is "going for" the offenders.

The Sacramento Union of the 20th estimates the Republican majority in the California judicial election at from 10,000 to 12,000. In San Francisco, Bolander, for Superintendent of Public Instruction, received the prodigious majority of 6,388 votes.

It now appears that the Ohio Senate is a tie, the Republicans having lost a Senator by the exclusion of the vote of the crippled soldiers at the "Home" near Dayton. This was done by Democratic judges of election. An effort will be made to test whether men who have been maimed in defense of their country can be thus disfranchised. But the Democrats gain nothing by this act, as the House is largely Republican.

This severe paragraph is from the Jacksonville Times, a Democratic paper: "Adjutant General Dennison was charged, some time since, with being a defaulter to School District No. 1, of Portland, of which District he was a Director. Recently he acknowledged the corn by "pungling" over the cash and resigning his position. We would suggest that the reputation of being a robber of the school children is not compatible with the position of Adjutant General of the State of Oregon, which position Dennison holds, and that he had better tender his resignation of his military office. Governor Grover is singularly unfortunate in some of his appointments—isn't he?"

THE CHICAGO FIRE.

It is said that William B. Ogden estimates his entire losses in Chicago and the Wisconsin pineries at four or five million dollars, and C. H. McCormick's loss as being not less than three quarters of a million. He says he will immediately borrow half a million and begin building.

The city has a total debt of $14,417,321 45. This is distributed as follows: Floating, $318,221 71; bills payable, $395,849 74; funded debt, old issue, $342,000; funded debt, new issue, $2,192,500; school bonds, $1,119,500; sewer bonds, $2,680,000; river improvement bonds, $5,567,000; water bonds, $4,820,000.

Careful measurement and calculation of the area of the burnt district of the city, from its starting point to the place of its ending, makes its length about 4½ miles, and its width a little over one mile. Along the south side of the Lake Shore, however, and westward five blocks, Harrison street is the southern limit of the conflagration, and the distance from that street to Fulton avenue, its northern limit, is only 3½ miles. The point of the fire beginning on the West Side was about one mile south of Harrison street, southwesterly.

A dispatch of the 19th gives this: The system of relief inaugurated yesterday appears now to be working with the most gratifying smoothness, for which the Relief and Aid Society are deserving of the warmest admiration. Though colossal in its proportions and in its intricacy, it is almost self-directing. The impulse once given, every part of the machinery is set in motion. By Saturday it is believed that every applicant will be recognized and registered. Every bushel of flour, every pound of meat and every cent of money will also be registered, and its distribution accurately accounted for.

Another dispatch of the 19th says: This morning the first important real estate transaction since the fire was closed between two of our wealthiest and best known citizens. H. W. Hinsdale sold Thomas B. Bryan a lot, 48 feet front by 71 feet deep, on the corner of Randolph street and Dearborn Place, half a block east of Michigan avenue, for $50,000 cash, or over $1,000 per front foot. The bargain was negotiated and the contract made on the ruins surrounding the vault of the Fidelity Safe Deposit Company. The property thus changing hands was valued at $60,000 before the fire, or about $1,300 per foot. It was purchased by Mr. Hinsdale in 1867 for $40,000, being then vacant ground. It is very evident from this that Chicago's own property owners still have faith in Chicago's future, and this is also demonstrated in the case of R. M. Hooley of Hooley's Opera House, who yesterday refused $200,000 for his property on Clark street, opposite the Court-house, which he valued at $250,000 before the fire, and which he considers not worth a cent less to-day.

A Southern Oregon Critic.

The Jacksonville Times has a criticism on "Kit Carson's Ride" by Joaquin Miller, from which we take the following:

Now Kit Carson would never have attempted to run a race of forty miles with a prairie fire, even if "old Revels" was fool enough to advise him to do so. Why, the young squaw would have had more sense than that. Kit Carson, instead of throwing away his weapons and stripping himself naked, would have quietly kindled a fire in the grass, which would have made a safe track for his advance to the Brazos over the burnt territory—the herd of wild animals behind would have obliterated the trail and the pursuing Indians would have been thrown off the pursuit. This is the thought that would naturally have occurred to the merest tyro on the border, much less to a veteran frontiersman like Carson.

Carson's fame rests on his skill and experience in all the vicissitudes and exigencies of a border life; and a poem, avowedly intended to perpetuate it, should have some incidents tending to illustrate that skill under trying circumstances. Instead of this, Mr. Miller has sacrificed all that was natural and reasonable in the incident to a desire to burn "Revels" and the squaw to death and let Carson plunge naked in the Brazos with no companion but a blind and singed horse and a million or so of half-roasted buffaloes. The violent death of the Indian girl is all well enough, for the reason Mr. Miller assigns above; but he could just as well have drowned her in the Brazos after the escape from fire, or gotten up a first class fight with her red kinsfolk and let her meet her death while trying to save her lover (in the approved fashion) by the hands of her irate father, while Kit, after performing prodigies of valor, and offering half the tribe as a sacrifice to her manes, finally runs off on Pache. He would have preserved the "unities" (we believe they call it) at any rate.

OREGON.

The Statesman has come out in a new dress, which greatly improves its appearance.

Olive Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., Salem, has contributed $50 to the Chicago Relief fund.

A motion was made in the Salem Common Council at the last meeting to appropriate $500 for Chicago. It was lost.

The track is now laid to a point six miles above Eugene. The laying of track has been pushed forward at the rate of a mile a day.

A farmer named Bowman, who lives on Birch creek in Umatilla county, lost his wagon shop tools and materials by fire a few days ago. Loss, $2,500.

THE TERRITORIES.

A Walla Walla paper says that many immigrants continue to arrive in that section.

Small pox has entirely disappeared at Walla Walla. All the patients have recovered and no new cases are reported.

Chas. Dogue, a noted horse thief, who has been operating in Nevada and Idaho for a long time, was captured lately near Boise City.

N. P. R. R. surveyors are operating actively in Montana, making examinations of all the routes by which the Rocky Mountains may be passed.

Very Hard Times.

Figaro of San Francisco gets up the following, which is good:

[Scene—A five cent groggery on Pacific street. Four "Vags" discovered.]

BILL—I tell you there ain't no harder city anywhere than San Francisco is now a days. It's a sin and a shame, with so many houses with "To let—apply to Badlam & Berry," stuck on 'em, that when a fellow takes one to sleep in he's hauled up for a vag.

JIM—Oh, there's worser places than this. If a fellow's industrious he can make money. Perseverance does it. How many men do you think I struck before I got that two bits we're drinkin' now?

BILL—Don't know.

JIM—Twenty seven, so help me; but then when I did get it, it was a good coin, not a nickle cent, as it would have been anywhere else. Yes, twenty-seven times I said "may I speak to you a minute, sir?" to well-dressed men. Fourteen of 'em wouldn't listen; six said they "had too much of that sort of thing;" and seven listened while I told them I had been in town three days and wanted twenty-five cents to get a bed. Three of 'em told me to go to—well, where it would be too warm to sleep; and three more said I wanted the money to get drunk with, and the last said, as he gave me the money, "there, now go and get drunk as quick as you can;" and I'm a doin' it, though the whisky is awful weak here.

JAKE—I wish I could get out of the town. I tell you, boys, it's pretty near played, and a man, when it takes so long to get twenty-five cents, might as well go to work at once.

CHARLEY—I'll tell you, boys, if you have any grit in you, how you can just live in comfort all the winter. But you must make an effort.

ALL—How?

CHARLEY—Go to Chicago and become sufferers by the fire. I'm going, and Ned Wobbles and Wilkins, and Samieson and Jack Gulger and a lot more of us.

JAKE—How are you going to get there without money?

CHARLEY—Well, we ain't a-goin' in a Pullman car, we're goin' to walk.

ALL—Walk!

CHARLEY—Yes. It's easy walkin', a followin' on the track, and when we get there it's hard if we don't fare as well as the best of 'em. There's millions of dollars subscribed and no one's got more right to some of it than we have. So we're going to cadge along the road, takin' it as easy as you please.

JAKE—Well that isn't a bad idea. I'll be a sufferer.

BILL—So will I.

JIM—We'll all go and be sufferers. We are used to suffering and if we don't find it pays we'll walk back.

[Scene closes.]

"Cheer Up!"

The following is the Chicago Tribune's first editorial after the fire:

Cheer up! In the midst of calamity without parallel in the world's history, looking upon the ashes of thirty years' accumulation, the people of this once beautiful city are resolved that Chicago shall rise again with vigor.

With $200,000,000 or $300,000,000 of our hard-earned property swept away in a few hours, the hearts of our men and women are still brave, and they look into the future with undaunted hearts.

As there has never been such a calamity so has there never been such cheerful fortitude in the face of desolation and ruin.

Already contracts have been made for rebuilding some of the burned blocks, and the clearing away of the debris will begin to-day if the heat is so far subdued that the charred material can be handled. Field, Leiter & Co., and John Farwell & Co., will commence business to-day. The money and securities in the banks are safe. The railroads are working with all their energies to bring us out of our affliction.

The $300,000,000 of capital invested in these rails are bound to see us through. They have been built with special reference to a great commercial want at this place and cannot fail to sustain it.

As Chicago must rise again we do not belittle the calamity that has fallen upon us. The world has probably never seen the like of it; certainly not since Moscow was burned.

Ten or twenty years may be required to reconstruct our fair city, but capital will rebuild it, and fire proofs will be forthcoming.

The losses we have suffered must be borne, but the place, time and men are here. Commence at the bottom and work up again—not at the bottom either—for we have credit in every land, and the experience of one building of Chicago to help us.

Let us all cheer up, save what is yet left, and we shall come out right. The Christian world is coming to our relief—the worst is already over. In a few days more the dangers will be passed, and we can resume the battle of life with Christian faith and Western grit. Let us all cheer up.

TWO LEADING DEMOCRATS.—Here is a pretty picture of two leading Democrats—Tweed and Seymour—drawn by the former:

I came here branded as a rascal by the Republican press. Only seven or eight years ago you came to Albany branded as a traitor to your country by the same venal press. Did the Democratic Convention propose to exclude you? No. Now, sir, I would rather be called a thief than a traitor to my country. We come here as the regular delegates; we demand admission.

It is thirty-four years since Chicago became a city, with a population of some four thousand. Her growth since then is shown in the following table:

1840	4,470	394,437
1845	12,088	3,065,022
1850	28,269	7,220,249
1855	80,023	26,997,892
1860	109,263	37,053,512
1865	187,446	64,709,117
1870	298,977	223,634,800

Anna Dickinson, it is stated, has made $81,000 since 1860 by lecturing. Olive Logan, who has been in the business but three years, $40,000.

'Tis rather hard to get up "political notes." All one can say is that Republicans are doing about all the political business.

CHURCHES DESTROYED.—According to the Chicago Tribune's estimate there were 60,000 buildings in that city before the fire. Of these according to its enumeration 13,500 were destroyed, or less than one-fourth of the whole. But in the number destroyed were included all the most costly buildings of the city. The following is the approximate loss on the churches destroyed:

South Side—First Presbyterian Church, $200,000; Universalist Church, $100,000; Swedenborgian Church, $75,000; St. Mary's Church and Mission, Catholic, $250,000; [illegible] Church, $60,000; First Methodist Episcopal Church, $[illegible]; Wabash avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, $125,000; other smaller churches, $200,000; Farwell Hall, Y. M. C. A., $400,000. North Side—North Church, Presbyterian, $75,000; Westminster, Presbyterian, $75,000; Grace, Methodist Episcopal, $150,000; St. James, Episcopal, $150,000; two Catholic Churches with nunneries, $300,000; New England Church, $150,000; Rev. R. Collyer's Church, $100,000; Gullerton avenue Presbyterian Church and other smaller churches, value unknown, making the aggregate value more than $3,000,000.

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE of a CHRONIC DISEASE OF THE THROAT, LUNGS & HEART.

I wish to say to the public that I have been afflicted with a disease of my chest, lungs and heart for the last [illegible] years, and have been treated by doctors in San Francisco and Oregon, but found no such relief as I have found since I commenced taking Dr. Aborn's medicine, which has only been about four weeks, and I have gained some pounds in flesh. I feel almost like a new man. I commenced improving from the very first, and have continued to improve ever since. Further, I would say that the Doctor's treatment is entirely different from any that I had ever taken before. I would say to all that are afflicted to give the Doctor a call, as they will find his charges reasonable and his medicines magical in their effects.

I had been in the army and was under the care of a military doctor for three [illegible] he said he could do nothing for me. Finally I got discharged on account of my eyes. I then came to Portland, and I heard of the reputation Doctor Aborn had in Portland and I went under his treatment for three weeks, and now thank God, I am cured and able to resume business. I had suffered considerably before I went under his care.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 26, 1871.

War upon the Ku Klux.

On the 12th inst. President Grant issued a proclamation against the Ku Klux of South Carolina. This has been followed up by active measures to suppress gangs of that order who have long been committing acts of violence and defying the laws. Recent dispatches inform us that the United States Marshal, aided by a detachment of troops, has had a rough fight with an armed band of South Carolina Ku Klux and dispersed them, and that many of the leaders of the conspiracy in several counties have been arrested and lodged in jail.

The band thus routed has been in active operation in South Carolina for more than a year. In Laurens county on the day after the State election in October, 1870, the United States troops having just been withdrawn from the vicinity, a party of Ku Klux made an attack on an assemblage of citizens and killed twelve of their number. In other counties like acts of outrage have been perpetrated. The people, both white and black, have been in constant fear for their lives. They have often sought the interposition of the Government, but the President has been reluctant to act, preferring to see the State authorities put the ruffians down. But it appearing at last that the constituted authorities of the State were unable to meet so formidable an opposition, the President interposed and gave orders to the Marshal and military to act. The result is a collision between the United States authorities and the Ku Klux, and the dispersion of the latter.

This lawless order claims a membership of five hundred thousand in the South. In active sympathy with it are the great body of Northern Democrats who sympathized with the rebellion. But the organization will be rooted out and destroyed, as everything else has been which the Democratic party has supported during the last ten years. Now that the authorities are at it they may as well make clean work of it. The principal object which the gang has in view is to carry the whole South next year by intimidation, violence and murder, for the Democratic candidate for President.

The Herald Takes a "Departure."

To our statement of the fact that Jefferson in 1808 approved an act of Congress prohibiting the importation of goods from Great Britain and her colonies, the Herald rejoins that the measure was simply a retaliatory one, and was adopted in consequence of Great Britain's interference at that time with our foreign trade, and not in any sense as an act to protect American industry. If there were no thought of protecting American industry by the act, how happened it that Jefferson in a subsequent message to Congress spoke so favorably of its effects in that direction? That there was something of a spirit of retaliation in its adoption we well know; but that it was defended by its authors on the ground that its results would be very favorable for our own industry is also an undoubted historical fact. Mr. Jefferson alluded to it in this spirit, in his message to Congress, when he said that "protecting duties and prohibitions" were working excellent results in establishing our manufactures. So it appears that this was the ground on which the non-importation and non-intercourse acts of the time were defended. The Herald, towards the close of its article, is constrained to admit that our early statesmen were protectionists, but says that a policy which was applicable in their day may be quite inapplicable now. This is somewhat different from its assertion the other day that they were not advocates of a protective tariff. The Herald has made a "departure."

Port Charges.

An effort is making to modify the port charges at San Francisco, which are confessed to be a serious burden to commerce. In a recent report to the Chamber of Commerce of that city it was shown that a foreign vessel of 1,200 tons register is subject to the following fees:

Tonnage dues, 30c per ton	$360 00
Entrance & Surveyor's fee	5 50
[illegible]	1 00
[illegible]	155 00
Outside pilotage	150 00
Wharfage, 15 days $27 per day, for discharging cargo	405 00
Wharfage, loading 15 days, $13.50 per day	202 50
Warden's survey	75 00
Total	$1,349 00

Taking no account of the tonnage tax and custom house fees, which are the same at all ports in the United States, let us submit a comparison of charges on vessels entering the Columbia river and coming to Portland, with the charges at San Francisco. The charges here are:

Pilotage and towage over the bar at Astoria, 16 ft.	$130
Towage from Astoria to Portland	175
Pilotage from Astoria to Portland	64
Warden's survey (if desired)	15
Towage and pilotage from Portland	214
Outside pilotage from Astoria	136
Total	$740

The charges on a larger vessel would be simply the additional charges for pilotage. On a vessel of 1,200 tons these charges would be $168 more than the above, or a total of $908, against $989 at San Francisco, exclusive in both cases of tonnage dues and custom house fees.

The unanimity with which the cities and towns of the whole country have contributed aid to Chicago is well expressed in the following dispatch from that city: "To give a list of all the cities, towns and villages in the country that, without waiting for a request, have forwarded bountiful supplies to sufferers, it would be necessary to furnish a complete gazetteer of the United States."

The substance of Frank Blair's recent speech in Alabama, an imperfect account of which was telegraphed here, was a demand for the nomination of a Republican by the Democratic party for President, and the declaration that the New Departure was a failure and a confession of imbility on the part of the party to carry the election this year on its own principles.

Sir Roderick Murchison, the eminent geologist and scientist of England is dead. In our dispatches of yesterday his name was erroneously written.

A Diversified Industry.

The Farmer has an article relative to our discussion with contemporaries concerning the policy of devoting all our industry to raising wheat for export, and in its remarks it exactly expresses our views. We quote:

"If there is a country in the world whose resources are more diversified than any other, where people may put their hands to almost any branch of industry known to man, that country is Oregon. In the West corn is king; in the South, cotton; in the East, commerce and manufactures. But wheat is not king here; neither are the famous "red apples." Our commercial position is as favorable as that of any part of our country. We have facilities for manufacture that are equal to any in the world. Our soil is capable of producing almost everything successfully, except corn and cotton, and we are quite willing that the South and West should keep their "kings" to themselves. Oregon is not shut up to the chances that follow any product of the soil, or any one branch of industry. We think it right that our people be encouraged to develop every resource. If Providence and Nature have opened to us many avenues of prosperity, we should not follow any one exclusively, to the neglect of others. And in answer to the question "What shall we raise?" we would simply say raise everything you can. Find what the different localities will produce best, and give to each product its legitimate share of attention. Let every branch of industry be encouraged to the fullest extent. Diversified industry is what we need. The Farmer has often called attention to this subject before. We are glad that other papers are taking the question in hand. We do not say this to discourage wheat raising, but to encourage the production of everything of which our soil and climate are capable. "These things ye ought to do, and not to leave the others undone.""

THE GREAT WORLD TONIC!

PLANTATION BITTERS
This Wonderful Vegetable restorative is prepared from pure St. Croix Rum and Calisaya Bark, known the world over as possessing wonderful tonic properties. As a Tonic and Cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal.

PLANTATION BITTERS
Just the thing for the morning lassitude and depression of spirits caused by late hours and what is called fashionable dissipation.

PLANTATION BITTERS
Of all the appetizers it is the most infallible, and the impulse which it imparts to the digestive functions soon puts Dyspepsia to flight.

PLANTATION BITTERS
It is the foremost remedy of the age. The specific of every species of debility, general or local, constitutional or casual.

PLANTATION BITTERS
A wine glassful taken half an hour before breakfast, dinner or supper, quickens the flow of the gastric juice, and thereby provokes hunger.

PLANTATION BITTERS
"By its use I dispose of three good square meals per day, with a good relish, have no pains and have gained sixteen pounds in eight weeks; sleep well, and consider myself a healthy man."

PLANTATION BITTERS
Taken moderately, three times a day, will give you strength, health and a cheerful and contented disposition.

PLANTATION BITTERS
Will give rest and quiet to those who cannot sleep, from unsatisfactory condition of their affairs.

PLANTATION BITTERS
Will restore tone and vigor—just the thing for mothers nursing.

PLANTATION BITTERS
"Well, they cured me of every distressing symptom in ten weeks and you had better follow my example."

PLANTATION BITTERS
If you want pure, rich and electrical blood—blood that gives tone to the system, the "rose tint of health" to the cheek—Try it.

PLANTATION BITTERS
Thousands of families in Ohio and Mississippi valley, and on the border of the southern rivers and swamps, will not be without it.

PLANTATION BITTERS
Which is the cheaper? A dollar bottle of Plantation Bitters, or a physician at two dollars a visit?

PLANTATION BITTERS
"The value of such an antidote cannot be expressed in words."

PLANTATION BITTERS
Will restore the vital energy, repair indigestion, and correct the sluggish circulation of the blood.

PLANTATION BITTERS
Is an unequalled invigorating cordial for the aged as well as for the young.

PLANTATION BITTERS
Is strongly recommended for weak and delicate persons, on their requiring a gentle stimulant.

PLANTATION BITTERS
"I began taking your Bitters the next day, and am perfectly happy to tell you that they have completely restored my health, strength and cheerfulness."

PLANTATION BITTERS
"I find nothing so good for headache and languor to which my daughters are at times subject! It gives them a splendid appetite, and they eat like pigs."

PLANTATION BITTERS
"By advice of my physician, soon after my baby was born I commenced taking them, and they have done me so much good."

PLANTATION BITTERS
Are sold everywhere.

THE RUSTLERS COMMITTED.—Yesterday morning Keithly, Newhall and Percy were arraigned in the Police Court upon a charge of grand larceny, committed in the swindling of the man Houck out of a thousand dollars last Saturday. C. B. Upton and M. F. Mulkey conducted the prosecution and Caples and Bell defended the prisoners. The testimony went to identify the prisoners as the men who were with Houck on the day of the robbery. Houck himself identified them as the men who got his money. His testimony, also, strongly supported the theory that he was drugged and stupefied with some subtle vapor, administered while the Rustlers were playing the strap game. He said that at two or three times he had noticed a peculiar smell and had experienced strange sensations. The appearance of Houck on the witness stand was that of a man who had been on a strong spree, and his memory of what had transpired was quite like that of a man lately recovered from a fit of deep intoxication. It was shown that after Houck returned from Salem the three went to the bar of the Metropolis Hotel and drew the money they had deposited there, and divided it among themselves, after which they went away. It was further shown that when they were surprised by the officers on the steamer, Tuesday morning, Percy took the bag of coin out of his pocket and slipped it into Newhall's pocket, where it was taken by the officers after the capture. At that time Newhall claimed the money as his own, and still claims it. The complicity of all three seemed to be established by these and other circumstances connected with the affair. The line of defence is substantially that no larceny was committed because Houck gave his money to one of the parties to bet on the strap game. The losing of the old man is not denied, but the prisoners claim that they won the money by betting. Judge Denny was satisfied that the prisoners were guilty of larceny, and so held them to answer the charge before the next Circuit Court—Percy and Keithly in the sum of $1,000, and Newhall in the sum of $700. In default of bail they were all three sent to the county jail. Newhall wanted to give the money which the officers took from him at the time of arrest as his bail, but the officers couldn't see it in that light, and he had to go with the other two.

A NEW STEAMBOAT LINE.—The books of the Columbia River Transportation Company will open for subscriptions of stock on the 27th inst. The shares are $100, the entire proposed capital stock is $75,000 and the number of shares 750. We are informed that John L. McLelland and Joseph Copeland have the contract for building the first boat in the line, from a model by McLelland. She is to be 133 feet long, 22 feet beam and 5½ feet depth of hold and to be propelled by a stern wheel. Her construction has been already commenced. The second boat, of smaller size, will be commenced as soon as the first is off the stocks. The third boat will be from 200 to 300 feet long, and will be used for the lower Columbia trade and tugging. Books for subscriptions of stock will be opened at A. L. Dalschneider & Bros., Portland; at Nat H. Lane's, East Portland, and at St. Helens and Astoria.

A BAD SITUATION.—There are several places in the city where the improvement of one street has left others in bad condition. For instance; Alder street has been graded up from Fifth to Seventh. At the crossing of Sixth, the established grade of Alder is eighteen or twenty inches above that of Sixth. The fill of Alder, therefore, operates as a dam across Sixth, and as soon as the surface drains begin to be filled with water, they will be discharged upon the blocks adjoining, much to the inconvenience and discomfort of the tenants thereon. We are informed that there are several other places in similar bad fix—a fact which should receive the immediate attention of the City Council.

PRINTING PRESS FOR SALEM.—By the steamer Montana, there arrived for Mr. A. L. Stinson of the Oregon Farmer, a Taylor cylinder power press, large enough to print a paper 32 by 46 inches. Mr. Stinson has been here since Tuesday noon attending to the shipping of the press to Salem. He informs us that he will start in a few days for San Francisco to purchase material for a full job office in connection with the Farmer newspaper office.

WANTED—TICKET-HOLDERS TO SETTLE.—We are requested by Mayor Wasserman to say that it is desirable that all parties to whom tickets for the late concert were entrusted, should come forward and settle. The committee wishes to get the proceeds together and forward at the earliest practicable day.

PRETTY GOOD.—Mr. C. B. Plummer gave the proceeds of his entertainment the other night, to the Wisconsin and Michigan Relief fund, amounting to the sum of $115 75. Messrs. Swan & Jones gave the receipts of their Oyster Depot on Monday amounting to $20.

EX-SENATOR WILLIAMS.—This gentleman will leave for Washington about the last of this week, going overland to Sacramento, and thence by Pacific railroad. He expects to return again some time during next March.

STARTED.—The sawmill lately erected by Lawrence & Jones, on the east bank of the river, is now in operation.

STREET WORK STOPPED.—The rains have had the effect to suspend nearly, if not quite, all the street contractors.

COMMON COUNCIL.

REGULAR MEETING, OCT. 25, 1871.

Present, His Honor Mayor Wasserman, and Councilmen Ellis, Burton, Combs, Congle, Hallock and Hill.

ORDINANCE VETOED.

The Mayor returned without his approval the ordinance providing for the improvement of North First street between E and F, on account of an error as to the section of street to be improved. The petitioners had asked that the improvement be ordered from E to G streets.

The question being taken upon the passage of the ordinance notwithstanding the veto, it was lost by a vote of 6 nays, to ayes none.

PETITIONS AND BUILDING PERMITS.

The petition of Anthony and Walker for permission to lay down a sewer pipe along Ash street, was granted.

G. Morehar and E. Cahalin were granted permits to use the streets for building and removal purposes.

VIEWERS' REPORTS.

The reports of the viewers in the matter of the extensions of Tenth and Eleventh streets, were read and ordered placed on file.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY.

The following claims were ordered paid: Smith Bros., work on engine, $13; Frank Nusom, scavengering, $7; T. Patterson & Co., advertising, $22 35; H. L. Pittock, advertising, $79 76; E. H. Virgil, painting roof of engine house, $10.

ORDINANCES INTRODUCED.

An ordinance making appropriations out of the general fund to supply deficiencies. Read three times and passed.

An ordinance to provide for the improvement of North First street between E and G streets. Read three times and passed.

An ordinance to amend ordinance No. 1,045, to provide for the improvement of Grant street between South Front and South Fourth streets. Read three times and passed.

An ordinance to amend ordinance No. 1,046, to provide for the improvement of Sherman street, between South Front and South Fourth streets. Read three times and passed.

An ordinance to amend ordinance No. 1,053, to provide for the improvement of Lincoln street, between South Front and South Fourth streets. Read three times and passed.

An ordinance to amend ordinance No. 1,048, to provide for the improvement of Yamhill street, between Seventh and Twelfth streets—read three times and passed.

An ordinance to provide for the improvement of a portion of the Public Levee—read twice and laid over.

An ordinance to adjust the cost of improving Montgomery street—read three times and passed.

ORDINANCES DEFEATED.

An ordinance to provide for the purchase of a safe for the City Treasurer—indefinitely postponed.

An ordinance making an appropriation for purchase of such safe—disposed of in same way.

ORDINANCES ON 3D READING.

The ordinance providing for the improvement of South Front street, between Sherman and Sheridan streets—passed.

The ordinance making an appropriation for such improvement—passed.

The ordinance providing for the improvement of Pine and North Seventh streets, between Sixth and B streets—passed.

The ordinance making an appropriation for such improvement—passed.

The ordinance providing for the improvement of Columbia street, between the public levee and Second street—passed.

The ordinance defining the duties and fixing the compensation of the Street Commissioner—passed.

The ordinance to establish a ferry landing at the foot of Clay street—amended by striking out "Clay" and inserting "Columbia"—passed.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Authorizing the Auditor to issue warrants for the collection of delinquent street assessments.

Directing the City Attorney to commence all necessary suits for the recovery of money due the city upon loans, etc.

Declaring that hereafter the office hours of the City Treasurer shall be from 10 o'clock A. M. till 3 o'clock P. M.

The Council adjourned.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The heathen Chinee are coming down from the mines in considerable numbers. In the mountains, To muchee belly cold, no good, and so they go for a warmer climate.

The window sashes of the skating rink have all been recovered, damages have been repaired and skating goes on gaily as usual.

Of late several instances have occurred where suspicious characters have called at houses after dark and annoyed the inmates with impertinent questions. Look out for such fellows, and lock your doors.

Two young men from Portland were arrested at Hillsboro on Tuesday, under an indictment found last May, for selling liquors at the county fair last year without license.

The Herald's Washington county fair reporter was mistaken the other day, by a landlord on the lookout for bilks, for a member of the "Mart Taylor combination." Rough on the reporter.

The Oregon Steam Navigation Company give notice that the steamers between Celilo and Wallula will cease running on the 1st of December.

Citizens of St. Helens have sent up six dollars to add to the Chicago Relief fund.

Milton Nobles, an actor here with Mr. Bates last year, is now playing at the Opera House, Pittsburg.

The Cascades steamer, the Oneonta, was detained beyond her usual hours yesterday by a big load up, a big load down, and adverse winds.

Capt. Flanders' new wharf is to be a double decker, with a roadway to the upper floor, on B street next to Allen & Lewis' store.

OUR COUNTY ASSESSMENT.—We are informed by Mr. John Dolan, Assessor, that the Board of Equalization has a prospect of concluding its labors about the last of this week. They have gone through the alphabetically arranged list as far as the letter P. The total assessed value of property foots up, thus far, over $5,000,000, and the entire list will show a property valuation in the county of over $7,000,000.

NOT HARD TO FIND.—The Herald reporter says: "There are five money collectors in the city who devote themselves solely to hunting up debtors possessing very short memories." That class of debtors—the short memory fellows—cannot be hard to find, surely. As a general rule, find a debtor and you find a man who can't remember worth a cent.

TO SAIL.—The steamship Montana will sail to-morrow, for San Francisco, with freight only.

DEBILITY.

All cases of nervous or general debility, premature decay, etc., are treated by Dr. Aborn with such wonderful success that many cases after a few weeks treatment are scarcely recognizable, such a change has been wrought in them as they have invariably in a short time gained from five to thirty pounds. Dr. Aborn can be consulted daily at his apartments, corner Third and Morrison streets, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., and 6½ to 7½.

CUTTER WHISKY.

A CARD FROM CUTTER'S SON.

[From the San Francisco Chronicle.]

It is entirely owing to the pertinacious efforts made by Moorman & Hardy and their accredited agent, A. P. Hotaling, through the public press of this city to injure me personally and to prejudice my suit recently commenced against them in the Twelfth District Court, that I feel called upon thus publicly to refute their slanderous charges. So long as they kept within the bounds of common decency in their attacks, I treated them with silent contempt; but having subsidized the San Francisco News Letter—a notoriously blackmailing sheet—for the purpose of villification and calumny, and keeping up their assaults from day to day in some of the other papers, my sense of right and justice compels me to trouble the public with a few facts in connection with our litigation.

My father, the late John H. Cutter, the originator of the Cutter brand of whisky, died in Hollis, N. H., on the 7th of July, 1860. His estate mainly consisted of a very large stock of whisky in Louisville, Ky., New York and Boston, and of the trade mark or brand used by him to designate the articles of his own manufacture. By his will I inherited two-nineteenths of his estate. But owing to the malicious advice of the harpies that flitted around his death-bed, he postponed the period of my entering into possession of the portion he left me until I attained my thirtieth year. So soon as I did so, I made repeated applications to both Charles P. Moorman and Milton J. Hardy for a settlement of the proportion of the profits arising from the exclusive use of my father's trade-marks, to which, by his will, I became entitled. These applications they persistently refused, and about two years ago, for the first time, set up as an excuse a pretended contract which they allege my father had made with them only five days before his death.

I then requested them to exhibit to me the original contract. This, under first one pretext and then another, they also refused; and I never saw it until about a month ago, when it was offered in proof in the suit of Moorman vs Chiolovich & Co., now pending in the Circuit Court of the United States in this city.

It has been stated in one of the newspaper articles published here, that the sale of the trade mark was well known to the executors of my father's estate, and that the estate had been settled years ago to the satisfaction of all concerned. This falsehood can best be refuted by the affidavit of Joseph E. Smith, who was one of the executors of the will. This affidavit was taken before Wm. Barrett, a Justice of the Peace of Hillsborough county, N. H., on the 29th of April, 1871, and has the seal of the Supreme Court attached. After the usual formula it proceeds as follows:

"That he was one of the executors named in the last will of said Cutter, and has acted in that capacity in the execution of said will; that he saw said Cutter some weeks before his decease and found him in a feeble state of health; that neither in his official capacity as said executor, nor in his private capacity as an individual, has he ever seen anything purporting to be a contract between said Cutter and said C. P. Moorman & Co., nor a bill of sale from said Cutter to said C. P. Moorman & Co, of the trade marks, symbols or brands used by said Cutter in carrying on the whisky business, nor does he know anything about said contract or bill of sale, except what he may have learned by hearsay.

"JOSEPH E. SMITH."

And so far from the estate being settled up, an appeal is now pending in the Court of Appeals, from the decree of the Probate Judge allowing the account of the executors. That the pretended bill of sale of the trade mark was fraudulent there is not a particle of doubt. I was myself at the bedside of my father for some weeks preceding his decease, in daily, almost hourly attendance, and had such an instrument been honestly and openly made, would most certainly have known it. His condition was such, however, for some weeks before death, as to preclude the possibility of the legal execution of any contract whatsoever. His disease was softening of the brain, and he had become utterly incapacitated for business for at least one month before death. In proof of this the testimony of his family physician has been taken and is now on file in the United States Circuit Court, in this city. The affidavit of Dr. George P. Greeley, taken before G. A. Ramsdell, Clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court, Hillsborough county, New Hampshire, on the 26th day of April, 1871, on the point, is as follows:

"That the affiant was for about three years the family physician of the said John H. Cutter, and during his last illness saw him frequently and knew his condition thoroughly, as he was his consulting physician in connection with Dr. J. G. Graves; that the said Cutter had been in failing health for a long time prior to his death, July 7th, 1860; that the disease which caused his death was a softening of the brain, and for several weeks before his death he was in a very low, weak, feeble physical and mental condition, and for some weeks before his death was incapacitated for doing any business; that understanding his physical and mental condition, in consultation with Dr. Graves, he thought it best he should not be approached or talked with about business matters, and so advised his family. And affiant was of the opinion that a man in said Cutter's condition was liable to die at any moment, and that any unusual excitement would be very likely to hasten his death; that during the last few days of his life said Cutter was so weak and feeble in mind and body that he could talk but little, if any, with even members of his own family, and that this condition continued until his death.

(Signed) "GEORGE P. GREELEY."

To the same effect, and almost in the same words, are the affidavits of Dr. J. C. Graves, and of my uncle, William T. Cutter.

The above testimony of the family physicians and relatives of the deceased is contradicted only by Hardy & Moorman themselves and by a striker of theirs, one William N. Tenney, who they recently imported into California. These men swear that they flitted about the deathbed of my father, and that they saw him subscribe the contract just five days before his death. Fully satisfied that the whole transaction was a monstrous fraud, I have brought suit to set it aside and compel them to disgorge. It is no wonder they flinch, since by their own sworn statements the value of my father's trade mark has averaged $50,000 per annum in California alone.

Here, perhaps, this communication might properly close. But the fraudulent and nefarious use made by the defendants of the trade mark itself calls for a few more observations.

THE CUTTER WHISKY with which these Louisville and New York sharps have flooded this market is not a genuine article, but a vile compound mixed and concocted by Moorman himself, and palmed off upon the public as pure and unadulterated. It was bad enough to be robbed of the trade mark itself by these whisky manipulators, but it is infinitely worse to impose upon the public that mixture of baked carrots, parched peaches, Cincinnati spirits and weak tea, shipped to this market by C. P. Moorman & Co., and sold to their agent in this city.

In conclusion, I append an entire letter written by Moorman himself, and admitted by him under oath to be genuine. I commend it to all dealers in Bourbon Whisky, here and elsewhere. Here it is:

"LOUISVILLE, April 25, 1858.

"DEAR SIR: Yours of the 11th at hand and contents noted. The tea flavoring you speak of is very good. I have also used carrots. Take them and cut them into very small pieces, and parch them same as coffee; put them in good spirits or rum, and let it stand for a few weeks. It adds very much to the age of whisky. Don't you think it will do well to mix the carrots and tea flavoring together? also a few peaches, parched in the same way, might do good. About what quantity of hot water would be best for six pounds of tea to have it of the right strength? I think you had better ship me one puncheon of N. E. Rum.

"Yours truly, C. P. MOORMAN."

After all, it is not so much because I have brought suit to right myself that excites the malignant wrath of these worthy manipulators; but, rather, because my own brand of Cutter Whisky is rapidly freeing the market of their vile compounds.

JOHN F. CUTTER.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 28, 1871.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

In selecting a Company in which to insure your life, remember that you should not take risks as you do in ordinary matters. Because things in general are uncertain, you propose to insure; therefore choose certainty. Nowhere can you so surely find it as in an old and solid company such as the NEW YORK LIFE. Amply tested by twenty-five years time.

GRAND OPENING.—Mr. S. Sax, informs his friends and the public generally, that he will to-day open a saloon at 61 First street, and that he will serve a fine lunch at 11 o'clock A. M. Everybody, of course, are invited to be on hand.

NEW YORK
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!
PURELY MUTUAL!
ASSETS .... $17 000,000!
ISSUED 9,925 POLICIES IN 1870.
Insuring Over $27,000,000!
WM. H. BEERS, Vice President and Actuary. MORRIS FRANKLIN, President.

AMONG THE ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY are:—

1st. PURE MUTUALITY, so that the entire surplus earnings over the actual cost of insurance is returned to the policy holders who are the only members.

2d. AGE, having been organized in 1845. It has the benefit of the experience of a quarter of a century, and members are thus guaranteed from all doubtful experiment in the method of conducting its business.

3d. STABILITY AND PERPETUITY shown by the accumulation of a capital of Seventeen Millions of Dollars, after paying all losses promptly, and returning large dividends to its members. It has now an income of over Seven Millions of Dollars, and the interest on its investments, with premium on gold, &c., has been sufficient during the past two years to pay accruing losses.

4th. NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES. It originated the system of non-forfeiture of policies, and to it the public are indebted for a feature so favorable to the insured.

5th. SUICIDE does not cause a forfeiture of the policy, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease.

6th. DIVIDENDS. Its dividends are declared annually, and are available immediately as cash in payment of premiums. Many companies declare their premiums annually, but do not pay them till several years thereafter; others defer their declarations for two, three or four years from the time the policy commences. In this Company a party always has a dividend which can be used in the payment of the second and all subsequent annual premiums.

7th. ITS DIVIDEND SYSTEM is the "Contribution Plan," by which each member is charged with the exact cost of his insurance, and receives back his surplus payments. These dividends can remain with the Company, participating in its earnings, and be used at any subsequent period in the payment of premiums.

8th. LIBERALITY IN SETTLEMENT OF LOSSES. Experience has shown that cases arise where policies, although EQUITABLY claims, are not LEGALLY so. The records of this Company bear many acknowledgements from widows and relatives of deceased members of its liberality and fairness in settlement of all such losses. There being no stockholders in the Company to share its profits, interests adverse to policy-holders cannot possibly arise, the Trustees simply occupying the position of arbitrators between the members, with no inducement to take from one and give to another.

ACCUMULATED CAPITAL OVER .... $16,000,000.
ITS ANNUAL INCOME OVER .... 6,000,000.
WHOLE NUMBER OF POLICIES ISSUED TO DATE, NEARLY .... 100,000.
NUMBER OF POLICIES ISSUED IN 1870 .... 11,217.

THE ÆTNA RANKS AS ONE OF THE FIRST COMPANIES IN THE LAND!
IN INCOME, IN ASSETS, IN NUMBER OF POLICIES, IN AMOUNT INSURED, IN SOLIDITY AND STRENGTH, IN SOUNDNESS, CHEAPNESS, PROMPTNESS AND SUCCESS.

THE AMOUNT OF DIVIDEND A COMPANY CAN PAY ITS INSURED, DEPENDS UPON THE RATES charged for insurance, the AMOUNT of business done, the EXPENSE of doing it, the INTEREST on its investments, the CARE exercised in the selection of its risks, and the TIME when such dividends are paid. In regard to these, as also all other points, the ÆTNA is unsurpassed in advantages by any other Insurance Company in the United States.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the Ætna:—"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution. Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

The New York Independent says of the Ætna Life:—"It is to-day one of the soundest and most reliable Insurance Companies in the United States—every dollar of its assets well secured, more than providing for all liabilities; and it eminently deserves a still greater patronage and the unhesitating confidence of the public."

The Means of Escape.

The fall has many perils for the weak and feeble, and its sudden atmospheric changes are trying to the constitutions of even the robust. The chilling temperature of the nights, as compared with the almost summer warmth of the day, necessarily exercises an unhealthy influence on all who are exposed to it. Hence, dysentery, diarrhœa, intermittent fevers, billious attacks, and derangements of all the secretions, are common at this season. The true way to escape them is to meet the causes with a protective and invigorating medicine. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are designed for this exigency. This powerful vegetable specific relieves the system of all acrid humors, purifies the fluids, tones the secretive organs, promotes healthy perspiration through the pores, increases the activity of the digestive functions, cheers the spirits, and regulates the bowels. To do this is to make the whole body vigorous, and render it proof against the vicissitudes of temperature, and against malaria. A course of the great tonic and alterative is therefore in all cases advisable as a preventive at this season. If, on the other hand, the mischief is already done, and intermittent or remittent fever is actually present, or the liver, bowels, or stomach disordered, there is no medicine so certain to effect a quick and thorough cure as this harmless and agreeable preparation.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Oct. 25, 1871.

Gold in New York, 112.

Currency, buying, 88; selling, 89.

The imports from foreign ports at Boston for the month of September were $1,802,331, being a falling off on the preceding month of about $1,800,000.

The steamer Oriflamme will probably leave San Francisco bound up on Saturday.

The New York Bulletin says:

At the time of the great calamity at Chicago there were seventeen elevators [illegible] with a storage capacity for 11,580,000 bushels of grain. The elevators burned were the "Hiram Wheeler," with 500,000 bushels capacity; the "Munger" and "Armour," 800,000 bushels; the "National," with 250,000 bushels; the "Union," with 700,000 bushels, and one other, but name not given. The elevators that were burned take away from the storage capacity about 3,500,000 bushels capacity. Those that were burned had about 1,600,000 bushels of grain of all kinds, the larger proportion of corn.

From the San Francisco Commercial Herald we glean the following:

The large [illegible] imports of Provisions have, for the most part, passed into the hands of the trade. The Bacon, Hams and Lard have nearly all changed hands. No person in the trade could have predicted a year ago that we would require from the East 5,000,000 lbs of Hog product during the current year, and yet we shall consume all of this without any stock accumulation. Neither California nor Oregon have been able to supply their usual quota, and from present indications a much greater demand will exist in the year to come. An invoice of 100 bbls Eastern Mess Pork via Cape Horn is now upon the market, the first received for years; about 500 bbls more also en route, the Young America having 300 bbls. In a previous [illegible] we noted the purchase by a leading dealer of the entire balance of Cross & Son's Chicago Sugar-Cured Hams at 18c. This, we believe, closes out all the Eastern Meats in first hands.

The market for Coal exhibits increased firmness, with but light offerings. Anthracite is scarce, selling at $18@18 50. Lehigh is held much higher, owing to a short supply. The impression prevails that [illegible] of the Foreign supply afloat to arrive within 30 days, has already been bought. Purchases of this nature include cargoes of Scotch and English per Springwood, Star of Hope, Shakspeare, J. T. Foster, Pembroke Castle, etc.

It is not alone in the superior quality of Wheat that Western Oregon excels, but also in the strength and length of the staple of Wool [illegible], together with its [illegible] from dirt, that we excel any grown on the Pacific coast. But there is one thing our Wool growers should bear in mind, and that is, the necessity of breeding for a finer quality, as that of California in fineness of fiber is superior to ours. The price of Wool will probably remain up for several years, and fine Wools will command quick sales at extreme rates, not only for making fine fabrics but also for mixing. The low prices which have ruled in England and in the Eastern States for several years past for Woolen Goods had its effect upon Wool by causing prices to fall, which very perceptibly caused in England a marked falling off in the home clip. In the United States the clip of fine Wool shows a marked decrease, but of other kinds grown where sheep can run in large flocks as in Texas and some other States, the supply is liberal, and shows an increase, as the following table of the receipts at Boston and New York from June 1st to Oct. 7th shows:

	1870.	1871.
At New York, bales	[illegible]	72,735
At Boston	63,[illegible]	98,636
Total	137,[illegible]	171,371
Increase		23,[illegible]

But at the same time the increase may not be real, as the [illegible] prevailing East may have caused the marketing of the Wool with greater rapidity, and at the end of the season (May 31st, 1872) the showing may be a falling off. Our Wool growers need have no apprehension of a decline in prices for long staple or fine Wools, as during our civil war manufacturers turned out large quantities of Woolen Goods, and even after the war ended they continued both in England and the United States to run to full capacity both night and day, and in consequence the markets of the entire world were flooded with Woolen and also Cotton Goods. Prices rapidly fell, and manufacturers run to less hours until within the past year they find that the consumption has not only absorbed nearly all the old stocks of manufactured goods, but there was also a largely increased demand for new, to meet which they have had to run on extended time, and in consequence the visible supply of Wools has been rapidly [illegible]. In the Eastern States, between two and three months ago, a combination of manufacturers was formed to break the Wool market, as prices had risen higher than manufactured goods sold in the market, and so as to more effectually accomplish their purpose, they withdrew their buyers from all points where they had [illegible] the only market affected was San Francisco, where prices have since advanced. Finding it impossible to break the New York and Boston markets, where the heaviest shipments are made to, and that their supplies have been decreasing very rapidly, and also finding that orders for goods were continually coming in, they were forced to enter the market some two or three weeks ago, and in consequence prices were [illegible] stocks on hand to set the demand. We clip the following from some of our latest exchanges. The Boston Shipping List of Oct. 7th, says:

The market has been quite active the past week, with considerable speculative inquiry, and sales advanced 1@2½c [illegible] nearly all grades, with a decided upward [illegible]. Fine Wools, it will be seen, have attracted the greatest attention, and for this description there has been quite an active market and a decidedly better feeling at the close.

October 11th it says:

The market is firm and active at the recent improvement, manufacturers purchasing freely, and with stocks disappearing quite rapidly, holders are disposed to sell only [illegible].

The Philadelphia Commercial List says that market continues to be characterized by great firmness. In fact there is a decided upward tendency. The stock of all descriptions of domestic is remarkably small for this season of the year, and there is an improved demand, particularly for the finer [illegible]. Low and [illegible] qualities are in moderate request at full quotations. A number of Eastern buyers have made their appearance and are looking through the market preparatory to making extensive purchases, which has increased the confidence of holders.

In New York the Shipping List reports that market quite active since our last, there being a good demand from both manufacturers and dealers and a further advance has been established in prices. Domestic fleece has been [illegible]. Stock is moderate, both [illegible] are not anxious to realize, even at the advanced rates. Texas Wool has also been in good demand, and prices have an upward tendency. The supply of spring [illegible].

Merchandise Report.

WHEAT—Market presents no new feature since yesterday. Buyers and sellers are as yet unable to come to any terms and in consequence we only quote shippers offers which are unchanged since yesterday's report. The highest offered is, as we are informed, $2 40 ℔ cental, sacked in straight [illegible].

FLOUR—Nothing new to report. The advance in Rice consequent of unfavorable advices from China will probably give us a better market in China. We quote extra at $7 50 ℔ bbl; superfine, $6 50@7 ℔ bbl.

OATS—But few transfers taking place, owing to the receipts being light. Market unchanged.

POTATOES—We are informed that shipments will be made from Puget Sound to this market. In 1869 the yield [illegible] was good and a large amount [illegible] exported to other places. In 1870 the crop was a failure barely being more than enough for home consumption. We were informed by many large [illegible] and others on Puget Sound last year that they intended planting largely, and with an average crop they would be able to export largely, so that the report that Potatoes from Puget Sound will seek this market we are inclined to credit so that notwithstanding our short crop and not enough to meet the demand we are likely to have equally as good to meet the consumptive demand. We quote market for Oregon at $1 40@1 80 ℔ 100lbs.

SUGAR—From the Commercial Herald we clip the following: "The market is bare of imports from Central America and Peru, our only present resource being a few thousand kegs of Hawaiian, and of which free purchases have been made this week for Oregon. Notwithstanding [illegible] of the year stocks are unusually light and market firm." The market here, though giving no advance, shows increased firmness.

RICE—The [illegible] Herald says: "Late intelligence from China of high cost and short crops, and the latter more or less injured by the severe typhoon, has had quite a stimulating effect upon our market, resulting in considerable [illegible] of Siam at 6½c. Strictly No. 1 China [illegible]; No. 2 do, [illegible]; Siam, 6½@6¾c; Hawaiian, 9½c; Carolina, 10c."

By private despatch received from San Francisco we are advised of another advance, selling there in invoice lots at 9½c for No. 1. In consequence of this advance [illegible] Dodge & Co. will send to the San Francisco market per John L. Stephens 850 mats. We quote market here at 9½c for No. 1 and 9¼c for No. 2 with a corresponding advance in other grades.

Daily Receipts of Produce.

Per O. & C. R. R.—1,400 centals wheat, S & E; 800 ctls wheat, H F & Co; 150 ctls bran, K Bros; 5 bxs eggs, C W H; 3 bxs eggs, 3 bxs butter, 11 sks bacon, 5 sks dried apples, 4 bales woolen goods, to order; 180 sks oil meal, O S S; 4 sks sage, A W; 2 bxs eggs, A & L; 3 sks dried apples, 3 bxs apples, W F B; 40 bxs apples.

DOWN WITH MONOPOLY!

DRS. ABORN AND LORYEA NOWHERE!

Give the Working Man a Chance!

The Greatest Discovery ever made by Man on this Earth,

RENNICK'S

Wahoo Bitters!

NEVER KNOWN TO FAIL IN CURING

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia,

and all Affections of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys.

IT HAS CURED CASES WHERE THOUSANDS OF dollars had been expended to no purpose, but filling the system with mercury, by practical or educated quacks.

Wahoo (Euonymus Atropurpureus), a small shrub growing in many parts of the United States. The bark of the root is a bitter tonic, laxative, alterative, diuretic, and expectorant, and is advantageously used in pulmonary affections, dropsy, constipation, torpidity of the liver, dyspepsia and intermittent fevers.

Read the Certificate of Mr. Thompson, of the Workingman's Boarding House, Front street, Portland:

PORTLAND, October, 4th, 1871.

I hereby certify that I am acquainted with the properties of the Wahoo Bitters, put up by S. J. Rennick. It is one of the best remedies for the Stomach and Blood in the world. In fact, it will cure Dyspepsia, Chronic Liver complaint, Chills and Fever, and has the advantage of not being intoxicating.
J. N. CUNNINGHAM, M. D.

This is to certify that I have used the celebrated Wahoo Bitters, and have known several other men in my house who were prostrated with ague and rheumatism, whom it has effectually cured. It acts on the liver and kidneys, surpassing anything I ever used.
J. B. THOMPSON, of Thompson House.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Sept. 12, 1871.

This is to certify that I have been sick with chills and fever for the last fourteen days, and have tried a great many remedies, and found them all to be humbugs, and was about to give up everything in despair. Mr. Rennick heard about my case, and gave me a bottle of his Wahoo Bitters and I was relieved, as if by magic from the hand of God.
A. KOLP,
Philadelphia Brewery, Portland, Oregon.

McMINNVILLE, Sept. 27, 1871.

This is to certify that I have used Rennick's Wahoo Bitters for a good while, having been acquainted with the Wahoo bark for over thirty years, and when aided by other barks, known only to the proprietor, it surpasses any medicine ever used for Ague, Chills, Fever and all affections of the Liver, Kidneys and Bladder. I have no hesitation in recommending it to the public. I am going on a visit to Illinois and take some with me.
E. J. WRIGHT.

ELLIS STATION, W. P. R. R., Sept. 8d.

I give this of my own free will for the benefit of suffering people: I am fifty-eight years of age, born in Dilley, Staffordshire, England, and a miner; suffered from rheumatism for years; have traveled with crutch and cane for the last two years, but I thank my God that Wahoo Bitters has made me a well man. No humbug about this. Experience has proved that Wahoo Bitters is king of all diseases. I recommend any person any way affected to try them.
OLD ARCHY BURTON,
Corral Hollow, W. P. R. R., Cal.

October 3d.

This is to certify that I have used Rennick's Wahoo Bitters, and can with confidence recommend it to all suffering from indigestion and all affections of the liver and kidneys.
JOHN STURGIS,
Front street, near sawmill.

PORTLAND, October 1st.

This is to certify that I have been affected for twenty years, and the more doctors' medicines I took, I became worse when the effects of the medicine was over. I had a dreadful pain in my side. The doctors said it was my liver, but, thank God, one bottle of the Wahoo Bitters made a change, and I believe it will make a perfect cure.
MRS. SALLY J. L[illegible].

All orders directed through the Postoffice will be at once attended to. The Bitters will be carefully packed and delivered on any boat, properly.

Orders filled by Express, or as directed.
PRICE—$9 per dozen or $1 per Bottle.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ordinance No. 1,090.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of F street lying between the center line of North Second street and the West side of North Front street.

The city of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of F street lying between the West side of North Front street and the center line of North Second street shall be completed as hereinafter provided on or before the first day of July, 1872.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all timbers or other obstacles. If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within three days from service of notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of [illegible] the street—the full width thereof—to the [illegible] grade.

Section 4. The work to be done and the materials furnished shall correspond with the provisions of and under the restrictions contained in Section six of Ordinance 703, entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Section 5. The contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress and be responsible for any accident or loss resulting from [illegible] or neglect.

Section 6. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals, receive bids and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the work specified in this ordinance.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the Street Commissioner.

Passed the Common Council October 21, 1871.
